Welcome to

@theU

@theU is an entirely original web site with free membership to current and prospective college students as well as their family members and friends. @theU is also the first internet site in the nation that has a loyalty program that members can use to reduce the balance of a student's loan. You are just a click away from filling out an application for a student loan, searching for scholarship information, purchasing books/CDs/clothing and other items in the mall, making travel arrangements, and much more. Move your mouse pointer over the objects in the @theU picture for an overview of each area or come in and visit our web community. @theU has it all!
